

Price River

The property along the river would make a lovely river walk. Price could follow Helper's example for people to enjoy instead of having the overgrown area that it is now.

We are able to go fishing or boating within 15 minutes of our home.

There is nothing guarding this waterfall; someone could fall in. As a matter of fact, my great-great grandfather fell in and drowned.

